ImageWear is focused on your success by personally overseeing the placement, shipment and tracking of each eyewear order. Every frame shipped undergoes a 26-point quality control check giving your patients the most dependable eyewear while assuring 100% accuracy in material, color, size and functionality.

Our product team brings the very best combination of new trends and favorite styles to each collection. ImageWear partners with the industry's top buying groups, as well as the Walman Optical wholesale labs, to offer you the best programs for your business. Every frame is backed by a lifetime warranty.
